

In view of the events of August 14, the interests of the nation clearly lie with the Power Line industry working not on BPL, but reliable EPL - Electricity Over Power Lines.

BPL should be put to a quiet death so that the capital and expertise of the power companies will not be distracted from much more important tasks, as brought to light (or darkness?) on August 14.